Sir,

I have the honor to state that the first term of the Maharaja's College at Mysore is to commence in January of next year in accordance with Government Order No. 1--- dated 9th October 1906. So it was deemed desirable to invite applications for the Entrance Examination in October and November and to hold the Examination in December.

2. Accordingly, directions were issued also to invite Mr. M. Venkatakrishnaya, who, it will be remembered, spoke about the College at the Dasara Representative Assembly and offered to produce any number of applicants, was also communicated with. He wrote in reply that it would be convenient if the Entrance Examination were held at the end of April of next year.

3. I was thinking it inconvenient to start a school and a College during the official year while the School term was approaching its close at the end of the year. Further, since the age of the pupils admitted is the same in all schools and Colleges it was decided to

Mr. Venkatakrishnaya's proposal appeared to me good. The Members of the Committee to whom this was referred agree in his view.

4. I have the honor to submit the enclosed proposal and draft order for the sanction of Government and to request that the draft may be returned to me
